Accomplishments

- On September 2nd I conducted a presentation for creative consultant students from the Grady School of Journalism, in an effort to solicit them to assist the public image committee in Clayton County.
- Attended the regional leadership institute from Sept 20th - 25th
- Participated on a panel discussion for the National Outreach Scholarship Conference the theme for the discussion was “Rural vs Urban community engagement---“Lessons Learned”.

Projects & Status

- Met with Barlon Lundgren to determine if more students were needed to assist with the Federally Qualified Healthcare Center project for Clayton citizens. Mr. Lundgren has requested that we not recruit new students until the beginning of December 2009
- The MIS students in Dr. Huber’s class have began working on the internal website phone directory project for Clayton County IT Department
- Summer landscaping projects were completed and approved by Winston Eason, Cooperative Extension Agriculture Agent, project results were presented to the executive committee
- The public image committee met with the creative consultant students to update the students on committee activities and to allow the students to present information and research on using social media

Next Steps

We will schedule a steering committee meeting in November 2009.
