The Archway Partnership is a University of Georgia community engagement platform. It was created to enhance the land grant mission of teaching, research and service, while addressing self-identified community priorities in selected locations across the state.

Mission Statement

The Archway Partnership has engaged more than 650 students on projects in communities throughout the state of Georgia.

UGA Public Service & Outreach Partners

1. Carl Vinson Institute of Government
2. Georgia Center for Continuing Education
3. Fanning Institute
4. Marine Extension Service
5. Office of Service Learning
6. Small Business Development Center
7. The State Botanical Garden of Georgia

Archway’s UGA Schools and Colleges Partners

1. Franklin College of Arts and Sciences
2. Terry College of Business
3. College of Agriculture & Environmental Sciences
4. College of Education
5. College of Environment & Design
6. Warnell School of Forestry & Resources
7. College of Pharmacy
8. Graduate School
9. College of Veterinary Medicine
10. School of Law
11. Grady College of Journalism & Mass Communication
12. School of Social Work
13. School of Public & International Affairs
14. College of Family & Consumer Sciences
15. College of Public Health

Bridging the Gap

Model:

Local Priority ➔ Discipline ➔ Resource ➔ Output

Examples:

- Leadership development
  - Fanning Institute
  - “Train the Trainer” curriculum
  - Community builds and implements leadership development program

- Landscape design work for school playgrounds
  - College of Environment & Design
  - Student interns and graduate students
  - Drawings, plans and a presentation which the community can build and implement