Executive Committee Retreat -
  - The Sumter County Archway Partnership held a planning retreat on January 27th. Community priorities of Leadership, Community-wide Economic Development, Education and Public Health were reaffirmed. Achievable goals were established to guide the Plan of Work for the next 12-18 months. Archway Professionals from Pulaski, Hart, and Washington Counties as well as the Athens Office facilitated the discussions and provided success stories from their communities.

GEDA Legislative Luncheon –
  - On Feb. 5, the Georgia Economic Developers Association hosted its annual luncheon at the Capitol. Barbara Grogan, Executive Director of the PDA, organized a delegation from Sumter County to attend the luncheon, recognize our legislators for all they do for us and share with them issues of local importance. Representatives from the PDA, City, County and Archway Partnership were in attendance.
