Leadership Hart Youth Visit Georgia Capitol
On Feb. 26, members of the Leadership Hart Youth class participated in the statewide Leadership Day in Atlanta at the Capitol. They attended a lunch with a keynote from Governor Nathan Deal, toured the Capitol and met with Representative Alan Powell to learn about the Legislature. Leadership Hart Youth is a partnership of the Hart County Chamber of Commerce, Hart County High School and Hart County Archway whose goal is to develop young leaders.
Employee Recruiting Assistance

Hart County Archway continues to assist Häring USA, Hart County’s newest industry, with connecting them to higher education resources for recruitment of their future leadership team. Archway is assisting company leaders by connecting them with Tri-County Technical College in Pendleton, South Carolina, as well as to UGA’s Terry College of Business through multiple information sessions for students in a variety of majors, assistance from career services staff and interviews with students interested in careers.
