Instructional Technology
Lenie George, a doctoral student in the College of Education’s Learning, Technology, and Design program participated in a Technology Carousel for teachers with the Washington County Board of Education. Lenie led five seminars as part of the carousel on February 13th on the three following topics: 1) Creating Stop Motion Videos (2) A Savvy use of Socrative, and (3) Show me the DATA! Polling your students effectively.

Photo: Lenie George instructs teachers during a Technology Carousel for Washington County teachers.

Asset Mapping
Asset Mapping Issue Work group members traveled to Athens on Tuesday, March 4th to visit with representatives from CVIOG’s ITOS division. ITOS is currently working to establish base layers for the mapping program.