Accomplishments

Griffin-Spalding Archway Partnership Welcomes Dr. Lew Hunnicutt
The Griffin-Spalding Archway Partnership Executive Committee is excited to welcome its newest member, Dr. Lew Hunnicutt, Assistant Provost and Campus Director for the University of Georgia Griffin Campus. Dr. Hunnicutt was previously vice president of extended services at Frank Phillips College in the Texas Panhandle, where he oversaw two campuses as well as extended education programs such as continuing education and corporate development. The assistant provost and campus director of UGA-Griffin is a new position, and Dr. Hunnicutt will report to the Provost’s Office to support instructional missions of the campus and to the dean of the College of Agricultural and Environmental Sciences to support the research and extension missions of the college.

Charity Detox Workshop
The Griffin-Spalding Archway Partnership Executive Committee participated in the Spalding County Collaborative Charity Detox Workshop on Nov. 4. The Charity Detox Workshop provided tools to identify and correct toxic charity practices. Participants examined the differences between crisis and chronic need and the potential methods for addressing each. Participants also explored strategies for implementing change within their community’s charities.

Ongoing Efforts

Community Health and Wellness Issue Work Group
The Griffin-Spalding Archway Partnership Community Health and Wellness Issue Work Group held its second meeting on Nov. 18. Over 20 attendees held an in-depth conversation about the three priority areas uncovered in the work group’s initial meeting: healthy food (access and affordability, education), teen pregnancy/unplanned pregnancy (all ages) and lack of personal responsibility (culture – apathy). The work group recommended current programs and assets that address these three priority areas.

3G Plus Issue Work Group
The Griffin-Spalding Archway Partnership 3G Plus Issue Work Group held its meeting on Nov. 30. The City of Griffin and the Griffin-Spalding County School System provided updates. The group discussed agenda items and attendees for the upcoming Griffin-Spalding Archway Partnership Retreat scheduled for Feb. 4 and 5, 2016, in Carrollton, Georgia.
