

2023 IN REVIEW

Student Involvement:

DOWNTOWN DEVELOPMENT

A team of students from the Terry College of Business Institute for Leadership Advancement developed a report for the City of Moultrie that examined ways for the city to attract and retain young people and families. Through surveys, interviews and case studies, the team put together recommendations that can help community leaders plan for and guide future growth.

PRIORITY AREAS

1. Youth Development
2. Health and Wellness
3. Community Development
4. Community Collaboration and Communication

BOYS & GIRLS CLUB

A team of UGA engineering students analyzed an adjacent building to the Boys & Girls Club to determine feasibility for use and create designs for rehabilitation and repair. The team did a full review for structural integrity and other issues. Their analysis will help the club director make decisions on expanding and improving the facilities.

"Most of the people in Georgia have never been to Athens. They know about the University of Georgia because they see it in their communities."

NONPROFIT LEADERSHIP

A UGA School of Social Work class held a Design Thinking Day in Moultrie where they met with leaders from local nonprofits to discuss challenges and shared issues. The brainstorming-type discussion was tailored specifically to their needs and nonprofit leaders were able to generate solutions that will make a difference in their organizations and the community.
